Our son is deaf and we always use Closed Captioning. What is frustrating is the mistakes in pre-recorded material. I can understand typographical errors when trying to enter closed captioning for live broadcast but not when there should be time to correct these simple mistakes.